Peeing every 3 hours

Do you feel like you have tried everything to get your adult dog to stop pipes at home? * True also for puppies! I know you're busy. And it seems that your dog would have clearly had the message now, but there is a habit and there are enzymes enzymes ]. This because this re-training of pipes in the house problem seems to move away from you. Even if they drive your dice. Although his embarrassing having other people come to your home. Even if you are sick and tired of listening to a family member to look for him. Even if you causes you to be angry with the dog you love so much. Here's the thing ... it doesn't make it too difficult. And ... I know there is a mistake that 99% of people make it too to tell you even if you make a solid attempt in the steps that has been told more and more than to give up your dog no pipi in home. You can do what your dog stops piping at home and it's really so difficult. There really is a secret to this. The problem is that most people do not follow a formula that works because they think it is difficult and have this idea in their head that is not pretty with their dog. Or that you won't work before you start. Or you tried everything and didn't work. I'm here to tell you that I went to dog formation professionally for over 14 years and these simple steps to redevelop your dog don't pee in the work of the house and you can do it easily. And your dog is not angry with you! I'm also here to tell you that you have to pay attention to the only thing that most people don't do it and has to do with cleaning. But we'll talk about it in a minute. Here's what to do to stop the piped dog at home, take your dog to your point of pipi often chosen on a leash. Dogs think and learn in images. Show your dog where you can repeatedly go. Bring out your dog: first thing in the morning the last thing before going to bed every time you come home every time you leave during the redevelopment of the potty - don't leave your dog out and about in the unattended house. Ok, so this is the only people. Yes, cash your dog or put them in a pen x when you went or not paying attention to them. * Note: This is for a short period of time if you follow this formula. It's just like a crib for the child and I faced it, you wouldn't like to leave a child or a small child to wandering around without going into something that shouldn't be if he didn't look at you? Your dog will take it after the repetition of doing it well, but the set up for success at the beginning is important, and then you will be able to let them wander themselves without pipes at home. Make a big affair flippin with sweets, petting praise or both when your dog goes to the right place. No further explanation required here. We look at all the à €
