ACTIVITY IDEAS FOR YOUR BLACKBOARD OR WHITEBOARD A very simple, but fun and effective grammar board game: First, divide your class into two teams, and have two volunteers (one from each team) come to the board. Choose one of the word items they have learned recently - for example, 'drive' - and shout it aloud. The two students should then compete to write a complete sentence with the past simple form of that verb - 'I drove to a park. To be awarded one point, the sentence must be at least 5 words in length (use a longer word length for more advanced classes) and contain no spelling, punctuation, capitalization or grammar mistakes. Encourage their seated teammates to yell suggestions. Repeat this procedure using randomly selected words, and new volunteers for each round. Continue for six or seven rounds, and then applaud the winning team with the most points.
